The August minutes were read by Lisa Taylor. Larry made a motion to approve the minutes, it was seconded by Tammy.

The Treasurers' report was given by Larry. Lisa made a motion to approve, it was seconded by Tammy.

- * ordered new checks

- * Book fair check from last year has still not went through

The administration report was given by Larry.

- * NEE testing began today. The computers worked faster and better this year.

- * There is a site council meeting on Wednesday, they need more members.

- * School Messenger was used Friday for the flood day. If you know someone who didn't get the message let the schools know.

Monty told us the Wellness Committee meeting was postponed this month so there was no new news.

Monty confirmed that movie night will be Nov. 7th. Beth is working on it.

Christmas program-

- * There is no one signed up to organize silent auction baskets we really need volunteers.

- * We will not be doing cookies and punch again this year.

Recording programs

- *Larry will find out if a HS class will help with that.

Santa- should we do something about purchasing a suit? Everyone agreed we should.

Larry made a motion to pay $25 last year and $25 this year. Lisa seconded the motion. All agreed.

Requested funds for special projects-

Estimated $5000 requests turned in

Lisa made a motion to grant all requests if under $5000, it was seconded by Tammy. If the actual total is above $5000, we will decide at October meeting.

New Items-

Book Fair- suggested a Barnes and Noble proceeds night, and maybe check on a restaurant near by that will do the same.

Cambells' Labels- Dillons is automatically giving credit to the school of your choice for labels when you use your Dillons card. You can look for more information at www.dillons.com

Larry made a motion to adjourn, Tammy seconded it. The meeting adjourned at 7:19.
