Johnny Appleseed

Next week we will be doing activities based around apples. Johnny Appleseed's birthday is Sept. 26.

This week we did the NWEA test on the computers. This test measures where the students are at in reading and math. It tells us what areas we need to work on throughout the year with each individual child. Then we retest in the spring to see how much each student

Class Books

In our Animated Literacy we make several class books. These books will be coming home for everyone to read and enjoy. Please send them back as soon as you can so the next person on the list can take them home. We hope you enjoy reading them with your child. Hopefully you will see some improvement in their drawings and writing throughout the year.

Highlights

- ☺ The letter Dd
- ☺ Drawing and labeling a dad
- ☺ NWEA Testing on computers
- ☺ Old King Cole poem
- ☺ Apples and Bananas song and class book
- ☺ 3 Little Pigs song and skit in music

Everyday we go to the library to check out and return library books. Each child can have two books checked out at a time. Please have your child read the books to you and return them as soon as possible. In a few weeks we will begin taking AR tests over the books to see how well they comprehend what they are reading.

Reminder
We will be going to Teter Rock next Fri. afternoon.
